Non-physical forms of coercion to extort sexual favors from the victim septortion uses non-physical forms of coercion to extort sexual favors from the victim. Sestortion refers to the wide category of sexual exploitation in which the abuse of power is the coercion means, as well as the category of sexual exploitation in which the release threatened with images or sexual information is the coercion medium. [1] As used to describe abuse of power, the septortion is a form of corruption [2] in which people have entrusted power - like government officials, judges, educators, police forces and the employers is Ā ē ā,~ "try to extort sexual favors in exchange for something within their authority to grant or retain [3] [4] [5] [6] [7] examples of such abuses of power Include: Government officials that require sexual favors to obtain licenses or permits, [8] [9] Teachers who exchange votes for sex with students, [10] [11] and employers who make sexual favors in favor Condition for getting a job. [12] Setterrage also refers to a form of blackmail in which information or sexual images are used to extort sexual favors from the victim. [13] Social media and text messages are often the source. of sexual material and the threatened medium of cond lder it with others. An example of this kind of setourage is where people come with a naked image of themselves have shared on the internet through sex. They are subsequently built in the execution of sexual acts with the person who is extortion or are forced to lay or perform sexually on the camera, thus producing hardcore pornography. [14] This blackmail method is often used to get out of LGBT people who maintain their true private sexual orientation. [15] A video that highlights the dangers of the Sextortion was issued by the National Crime Agency [16] in the United Kingdom to educate people, especially since the sized saddles causes humiliation to a sufficient measure to Cause the victim your life, [17] in addition to other efforts to educate the audience on the burden risks. [18] BlackMail webcam See also: The Sextortion of Cybersex traffic through the use of webcam is also a concern, especially for those who use webcams to flirt and cybersex. [18] [17]. Often this involves a cybercriminal computer pose as someone else - as an attractive person - starting the communication of a sexual nature with the victim (about 95% of the victims are males). [17] Often, the cybercriminal simply shows the victim a pre-recorded video of a performer from a cybersex website that is sufficiently familiar, so messages the victim in the points in the video where the performer seems to type on the keyboard, to be typed On the keyboard, to be typed on the keyboard the illusion that the performer in the video is messaging them. [19] The victim is then persuaded to undress in front of a webcam, and can also be persuaded to engage in sexual behavior, such as masturbation. [19] The video is recorded by the Cybercriminal, which therefore reveals their true intent and requires money or other services (as more explicit images of the victim, in cases of online predation), and threatening to publicly release video to video services as YouTube and send it to the family members and friends of the victim if they are not compliant. Sometimes the threats to make the false accusations of pedophilia against the victim are also made. [19] This is known as BlackMail webcam. [20] An increase in webcam blackmails have been reported, and strikes both young and old, male and feminine. [21] [22] The BlackMail webcam is also connected with webcam trolling. [23] History use of the term appears in print in 1950 in California. [24] From the beginning of 2009, the institute for online and mobile phone communication (IRoc2.org) began to warn the public on the trend of "Sextorersion" through live events and websites, including www.sextortion.org . This is a trend that has grown based on the birth and growth of the known trend as "sexing" for which images and videos were shared by individuals without a real understanding of the consequences in the short and long term the share of "private" content on digital tools designed for sharing. In 2009, the International Association of Women Judges (IAWJ), in collaboration with the Association of Women Judges in Bosnia and Herzegovina, the Association of Women Giudiche of the Philippines, and the Association of Judges of women in Tanzania, and with funding from the government of the Netherlands, launched a three-year program on "Stop the abuse of power through sexual exploitation: name, verginosa sestorsione and order." [25] The presentations on sestazione were made to the judges participating in the biennial world conferences of 2010 [26] and 2012 IAWJ [27] [28] and NGOs attending meetings of 2011 [29] and in 2012 of the Commission of United Nations on the status of women. [3] There are also scientific studies that describe the prevalence of sestazione in Europe, etc. In the Czech Republic (2017). [30] In China Sextortion there are cases of sestorsione as predators student loans [31]. In 2021 there is a group called QAWEM in Egypt which aims to stop the sestazione.
